Natural Science Institute of Iceland

APPLICATION FOR EXPORT PERMIT OF NATURAL HISTORY SPECIMENS COLLECTED IN ICELAND (animals, plants og geologcal research samples)

lnformation about the applicant/collector:

Project name
University/Establishment/Firm
Project supervisor
Applicant
Address
E-mail
Telephone/Mobile/Fax
Name and address of export permit holder(s)

Date, timeline and duration of the project

Site in Iceland where samples were or will be collected

Please note:

Collecting in a protected areas requires a research permit from the Nature Conservation Agency of Iceland (Leyfi á friðlýstum svæðum – Náttúra) or other relevant agencies. List of protected areas and relevant authorities are listed on the Nature Conservation Agency of Iceland's website (Friðlýstu svæðin – Nattúra). Collecting microorganisms in a geothermal areas requires a research permit from the National Energy Regulatory (Exploration licence – Orkustofnun). Please attach a copy of all sampling/research permits to this application.

Smiðjuvellir 28 | 300 Akranes| Iceland
natt.is | Tel. +354 430 9000

Project description, purpose and execution

Description of sampling methods

Description of the sample(s) to be exported, quantity and estimated volume and/or weight

Name of recipient and address where the samples are to be exported

Other relevant information

I, the undersigned, hereby confirm that I am aware of the provisions of Icelandic law no 54/2024 which state that export of natural history specimens is prohibited except with permission of the Icelandic Institute of Natural History. I warrant that those who are involved in the project shall comply fully with Icelandic laws concerning this application.

Send the application to: Natural Science Institute of Iceland, E-mail: natt@natt.is

Place and date

Signature of the applicant/representative